A Brief Seminar Discussing and Explaining the Cursillo Weekend Experience

This event will be open to all as will the pending weekend next year. There are no special conditions or requirements one must have to attend, except a willingness to be ministered to by a loving Christian Community and to experience God's Love, perhaps for the first time.

This seminar will present an explanation of the Cursillo movement both past and present with handouts for the participants. A series of brief explanations will cover the format of a weekend, the topics of the lay speakers, and general opportunities for the spiritual growth of each participant. After each brief presentation there will be time for question and discussion.

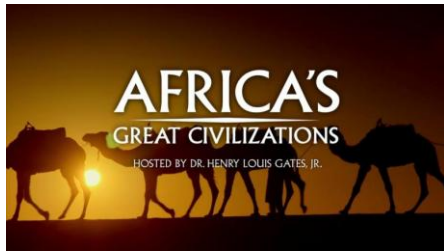

While sponsored by the Episcopal Church, the Cursillo movement was founded in the Catholic Church and is not a separate religion or cult, and is intended merely to strengthen one's existing faith. There are similar weekend experiences sponsored by other denominations under different names. Cursillo in our area is an inclusive ecumenical program that welcomes all!

Of course those attending will be encouraged to comment and ask questions since this is to be an interactive presentation and not a lecture.

A FREE Lunch will be provided and music will be at hand to set the tone.
